
Perry\'s Game #6

Posted by randall9 - 2010/03/08 10:24

Hi All, I'm on the Forum! It was one of my partner challenge goals for today.

As mentioned on the Team call this morning, my game is off to a reasonably good start after the first 2 weeks. I'm being challenged to re-engage disciplines, some of which desperately needed attention. All trees bear fruit and I am aspiring to bear an abundance of the good kind!

Well, I'm now on the Forum and will journal more next time.
